FROM THE PRESIDENT
Brian L. King

What a year it has been! Like a lot of people, I'm just wishing for 2020 to fast forward to 2021. It's hard to believe the things our country has dealt with this year.

Thank you to all who have helped us get through the Coronavirus pandemic up to this point. You will read about many businesses and people who helped us since March to make it through this unusual time. COVID-19 has had an impact on TCH statewide. The number of youth referred to our programs decreased due to the court system being temporarily closed and our reluctance to accept any who may have symptoms. We have been blessed to not have any children test positive for the virus at the writing of this article.

The upcoming year is an exciting time for Tennessee Children's Home. God has blessed this work for 111 years and Lord willing, we will be able to continue to make an impact for the cause of Christ on those we serve for many more years to come. Since 1990 over 1,300 have obeyed the Gospel—to this we give God the glory.

Our program at North Central moves to Clarksville at the end of October 2020. We will continue to serve displaced families and young adults aging out of the foster care system at our two apartments. We are grateful to Steve Church for helping us get the program started in Clarksville.

The new Spring Hill campus is in the building process about 3 miles from our current campus. We appreciate SR Residential for allowing us to stay on campus until December 2021 until the new campus is complete. Our needs at TCH have not changed since COVID-19, but our plans have slowed down. Our "Building the Future" campaign was to begin earlier this year but was delayed because of the restrictions of the pandemic. We would like to challenge the churches of Christ within the counties to raise enough money to build the six group homes, which is estimated to be about $750,000 per house. We still need to raise about 25% of the projected cost to complete the buildings and fully furnish the houses with new furniture and appliances.

If you would like to know more about this campaign or our needs, please call me or Chris Doughtie, 931-486-2274. We hope you will consider helping in this once in a lifetime effort. •

God Bless and stay safe,

Brian L. King

OUR MISSION

Tennessee Children's Home is committed to improving the lives of those we influence through quality services in a Christian atmosphere.

OUR VISION

Those served by Tennessee Children's Home will learn to live healthy physical, mental, social, and Christian lives.

WHAT WE DO

Tennessee Children's Home provides group home residential treatment, child and family counseling, and independent living programs. The purpose of TCH is to support, educate and provide Christian out-of-home care for children who are victims of abuse, dependent neglected, orphaned, and/or exploited, making all reasonable and practical efforts to provide services to meet their intellectual, emotional, physical and spiritual needs. A further purpose is to provide family intervention that is intended to prevent or reverse family disintegration through a series of community based and family based intervention strategies.

With four campuses located across the state, Tennessee Children's Home is able to offer a variety of services to children and their families. These include residential care for children placed by the Department of Children's Services and classified as needing Level II services. TCH also offers Alcohol and Drug programs. The group home residences are family oriented-serving no more than 8 children per house under the guidance of Christian house parents. Each campus offers supervised recreational facilities such as gymnasiums, softball fields, volleyball, exercise and weight-lifting equipment, games rooms, and other activities.

All the children in our care, regardless of the program, receive professional counseling. For some privately placed children, those classified as Level II, TCH offers on-campus and highly structured, therapeutic educational facilities. TCH also provides a minimum 3-month monitoring program to assist children and their families in the transition back into home, school, and work environments.

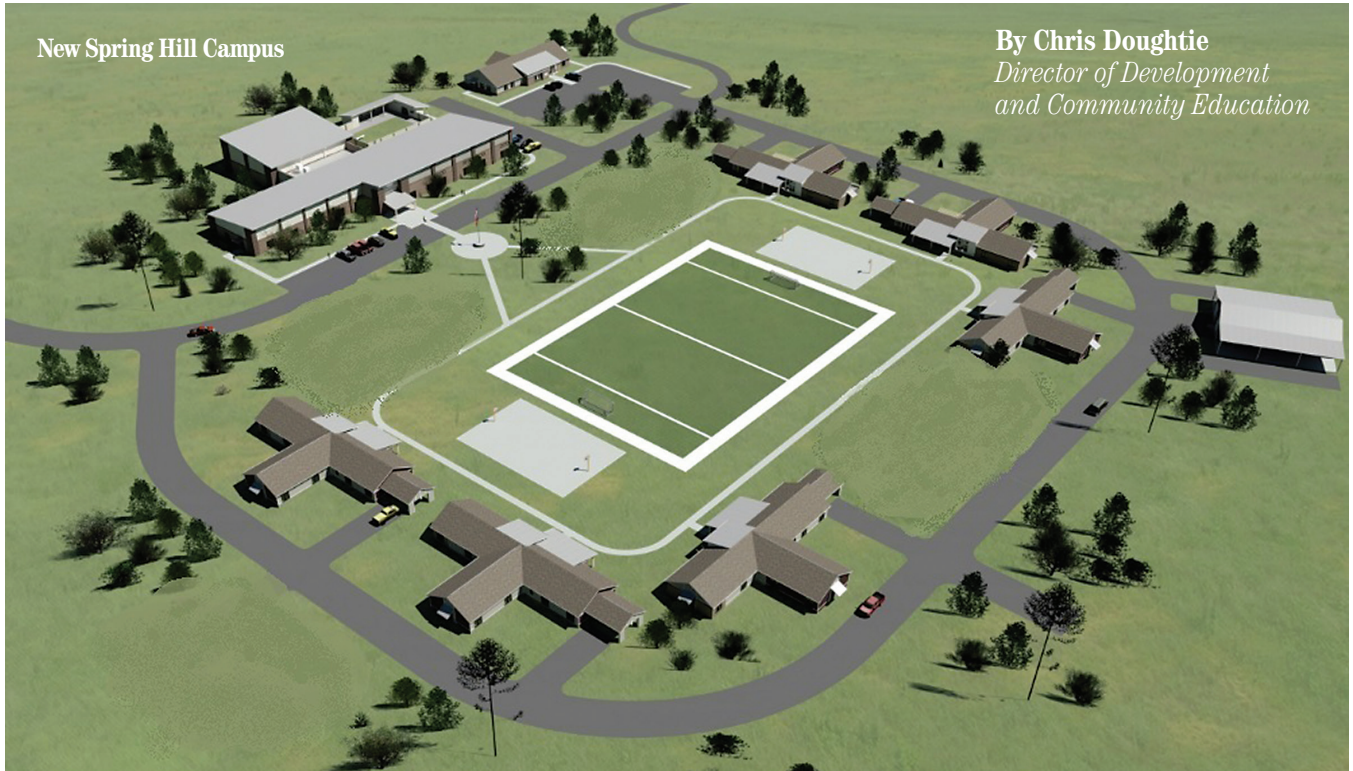

OUR PROGRAM

The Level II residential care program is designed for children who may be abused or neglected and who may exhibit runaway or delinquent behavior. They may have problems with their families, local law enforcement, school environments, or with their own personal behavior. The children served are between 13 and 18 years old. The children receive individual and group counseling, assistance with individual problems, and behavior modification instruction designed to help them become responsible adults. They live in group homes designed to be as family integrated as possible.

The Cornerstone School in Spring Hill, Duncan Academy in Knoxville, and New Heights in Pinson are the on-campus schools that provide for the educational needs of children in Level II programs and private placements. Most of these children are academically behind and/or have special learning needs. The school offers a structured and treatment-oriented environment, a 6:1 student-teacher ratio, tutoring, and special education classes. Students take courses in Math, Science, English, Reading, Life Skills, Physical Education, and Bible.

As Tennessee Children's Home works with abused, neglected, wayward, and orphaned children and youth, all reasonable and practical efforts are made to provide services to meet their intellectual, emotional, physical, and spiritual needs. This program has already proven successful as we observe the changes in student's behavior. The children become more self-confident, have less personal behavioral problems and are more productive as members of their community. We are providing the highest quality program promising the overall growth and success of each child in our care. •

BUILDING T

To say that we are excited about our Building the Future initiative would be an understatement. Anytime we get to improve the way we serve kids is an opportunity we know is a blessing from God. Whether it be to improve a service we provide, gain experienced staff who love kids and are invested in obtaining the best outcomes for those we serve, or, as in this case, we get to provide better facilities to continue the legacy of great Christian service to young people in need.

In the same way, to say we are anxious would be accurate as well. As you are likely aware we have been involved in capital projects on each of our campuses. In Clarksville, we are trying to obtain a grant to help us with the purchase of the apartments we are currently using to serve our independent living residents. In Henderson, we just paused our renovations to 4 campus buildings that began at the end of 2019. We plan to call the completed items

Phase 1. We hope to get back and start Phase 2 in the near future. In Knoxville, we have had a renovation planned for our Cherrybrook house for many years now. We have raised about 70% of that project and plan to begin that no later than early fall. Finally, in Spring Hill, we sold our current property and must be off of it by December of 2021. This is by far our largest project which will be underway by the printing of this newsletter:

If we had it our way, we would not have jumped into all of these projects at the same time. What's more, had we known what 2020 was going to look like, we would have not taken on such big endeavors. We know that the way the timing worked out for us is the Lord's timing. It has provided many challenges for us to work through. It has provided many opportunities for us to get better acquainted with the very individuals and churches that keep us going financially. But, most importantly it has compelled us to approach our God in prayer for this work in a more fervent manner. We know that without God, none of the work we do would be possible (Philippians 4:13).

Here is our challenge to you. Find out the best way that you can be involved in not just building the future of Tennessee Children's Home but building the future of Tennessee's youth. Can you help us talk with your church leaders? Can you help us talk with businesses that would like to help at-risk youth? Can you donate to the campaign that will allow us to provide the absolute best facilities we can provide?

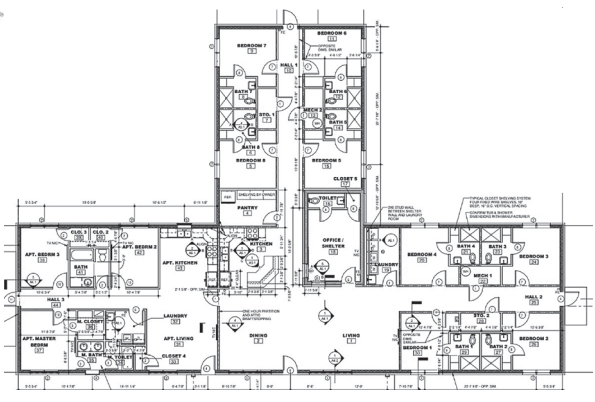

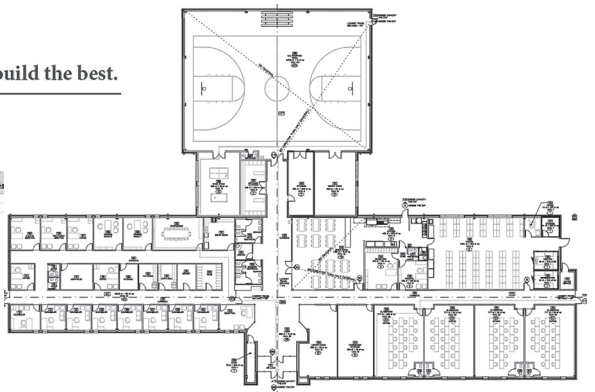

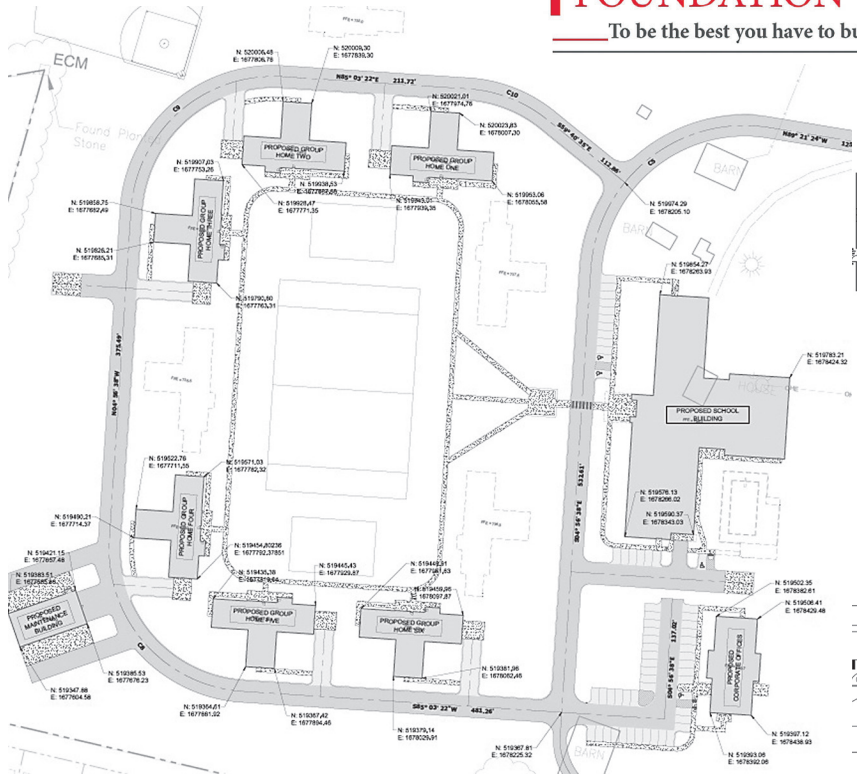

Tennessee Children's Home has always counted on its supporting churches and individuals to provide the absolute best care to those who need it most. Our Building the Future initiatives will require the same if not more support from those who we have always counted on. May God bless you for your work in His Kingdom! •

GOOD NEWS!

Our Spring Hill campus sold in the fall of 2019, and we are in the beginning stages of our new facility. Our new campus will enable us to continue our work in houses that are more suitably designed for the services we provide and eliminate a myriad of potential issues. As you can imagine, it has been a huge undertaking requiring many hours of preparation and many more as we move forward. It is an exciting time and our goal is to be moved to the new campus by December of 2021. To fully complete all the homes and the multi-purpose building we are still in need. Please consider the many ways to donate to our ‘Building the Future’ campaign. •

OTHER NEWS

These last few months have been interesting to say the least. We had to implement many changes for the safety of our residents and staff in the midst of this pandemic. We cannot help but wonder what the future holds in these unprecedented times but what we are sure of is—God is in control. •

During our campus quarantine, a severe storm came through our campus, uprooting trees and damaging several roofs of buildings. The staff and boys spent a day cleaning up the trees and other debris. Thankfully, several Good Samaritans supplied us with generators for the houses without electricity and came to help cover roofs until we could get the repairs done. •

Several job positions are open on our campus. A full-time teacher is needed for our year-round school. A great opportunity for someone interested in a small classroom setting. There is a need for several night staff positions also. Some may wonder why this job is needed. The youth here are required to have 24 hours of supervision, which means someone must be awake while they sleep. College students and retirees are some who have found this type of job convenient and a good opportunity to have some extra income. Please contact us if you are interested or know someone who is. •

By Chris Doughtie
*Director of Development
and Community Education*

When we typically think about family, it's usually in regard to blood relatives, mother, father, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, cousin, etc. We are right in that thinking. This definition of family is important. These are the people that should love you more than anything else on the earth. These are the people we should be able to count on. Like many other words in the English dictionary, family can mean so much more. One example of this would be the word "love." "I love apple pie" is different than "I love my wife." Same word, different meaning.

There is another type of family that we read about in Scripture. This is the family of God. Ephesians 3:14-16 says "For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named." We are in a family under the name of Jesus Christ! This is the most important family we could ever be a part of.

The year 2020 has been a reminder to all of us how special both of these families are. When faced with a pandemic, we all are placed in a position to experience these different families in different manners. We are able to spend more time with our earthly family. Our family spent more time outside. We spent time together doing puzzles and playing games, which we have always enjoyed, but got to enjoy more. On the other hand, many of us had to pull back from our church families and worship and study online. I believe we all need to have more of an appreciation for our earthly families as well as for our church families.

Here at Tennessee Children's Home, many of these same sentiments ring true. One of the important facets of what we teach to those we serve is family. We teach the importance of earthly family and more importantly we provide an earthly family for a group of people who have never experienced the Biblical definition of an earthly family. We are also able to maintain the importance on church family. Even through a pandemic, we weren't able to leave campus and go to a church building, the house parents made sure to incorporate worship and study in the house. While keeping earthly family important, we were able to keep an emphasis on God's Word and the family we learn about in it.

In other words, family is a word that encompasses what we do. Showing these kids what an earthly family looks like from a church family perspective. We couldn't do it without the many supporters who hold these same sentiments. Thank you for being a part of this wonderful opportunity to share truth to some of the most vulnerable. •

First Year at TCH

By Martin Smith
Development Coordinator
East Tennessee

I want to start out by thanking several people who helped make my first year as Development Coordinator at the East campus such a success. The first person I reached out to for help was the Loy Molchan, the former Development Coordinator. She didn't hesitate to familiarize me to all the people who helped her over the years. She introduced me to many of the longtime sponsors of The John Chavis Golf Classic. This was a huge help as I only had about a month and a half to put the tournament together. Thankfully Loy had the tournament running like a well-oiled machine. I just had to step in and keep it going. Thanks, Loy, for all your generous help!

We had a first for us this past year. The East campus had its Inaugural 5K in August called The Pathways 5K. It was a huge victory in part because of C. John Chavis, avid runner and son of Coach John Chavis. Without his help I could never have pulled it off much less be successful in its first year. We also had help from West End Church of Christ who hosted the start/finish line. Also, thanks to our Title Sponsor, Mortgage Investors Group who is located across the street. Thank each one of you!

In November the East campus hosted a weekend Prison Ministry Seminar led by TPOM (Tennessee Prison Outreach Ministry). Conrad Slate was instrumental in helping me get the seminar up and running. It was nice to have new visitors to our campus and encouraging to meet those who are willing to go into prisons to share the Gospel. We were happy to open our campus for such glorious work going on in our community. Praise God for this ministry!

Even our campaign to raise funds for the remodel of the Cherrybrook home went very well. All the staff and many of the boys helped with our first Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser. We had a great time serving others. Applebee's hosted the event and Modern Woodmen of America matched the first thousand dollars of ticket sales. It was a huge accomplishment and I couldn't have done it without everyone's help. Thank you all for your help! We reached our initial goal of $40K one month before our deadline.

I want to recognize a few people who were truly generous with their support of the Cherrybrook renovation project. Some of the first donors were Steve and Leisa Caldwell, Tim and Melissa Grater; long time donors, Robert Wright and family from Cleveland, Tennessee; our celebrity golfer, John Chavis and his family; Gary Massey Jr., Bob Brannon and Jeff and Holly Bauman were very charitable in their support; and many churches who were very supportive of this project.

There is One who deserves credit before anyone else and He is our Heavenly Father. A lot of prayers went into each of these successful events and this is how I know we are all doing the Lord's work. It is a good thing to take care of the physical needs of children but is a truly awesome thing to know we are helping these children see their eternal needs!

I hope this comes as encouragement not only to those who work directly with the boys but to all those who give of their time, efforts and financial blessings. May God bless you and keep you as we could not do this Kingdom work without you. •

SUCCESS!

MY TIME AT TCH Jonathon- age 17

I first came to Tennessee Children's Home May 22, 2019. It was 5 days after my 17th birthday. I stopped going to school, stopped listening to my folks, and started questioning God. I was dwelling on my problems and stopped telling the people I love how much I love them. I learned a lot living at Tennessee Children's Home.

I made a lot of good friends here. I don't think I could've done any of this without the staff at TCH. I learned a lot of lesson here as well from my house-parents, my teachers, my counselors, and my case workers. Sometimes I made really dumb decisions, but they said, don't let those decisions hold you back. If I kept dwelling on them, I would never get anywhere in life.

I did something I promised my mom, a long time ago, I'd graduate. With TCH help, I finally got to do that. I graduated a whole semester early.

I think these 7 months was God's plan for me coming here because I don't know where I would be if I didn't come here. It's helped me a lot. It's helped me learn how to deal with things and learn how to handle problems.

I thank all the staff. Thank you for believing in us. They helped me unlock my full potential to be whoever I want to. •

Learning Life Skills

By Roze Ellen Beamer

Campus Director, North Central

The young adults in the Tennessee Children's Home Independent Living Program can't avoid the twists and turns of life, but they can cast a vision for the direction they want to go. There are many goals to meet along the way. Tennessee Children's Home is trying to help these young adults learn skills which will hopefully help them become the person they want to be and accomplish independence.

Nine young ladies who were 18 have been served in this program since it began in November 2018. Tennessee Children's Home is helping these young adults set their course in life by teaching life skills.

Currently, there are two young ladies in the program. They both have jobs and plan to attend college in the fall. These young adults lack many skills such as how to organize and keep an apartment clean, how to budget and save money, grocery shop, apply for jobs, meal preparation, and many other independent living skills. The apartments are in Clarksville, Tennessee and are easily accessible to a bus stop, medical facilities, and grocery stores.

Many of the young adults have chosen to leave the Independent Living Program for various reasons. Our hope and prayer are that Tennessee Children's Home can help these young adults not only set their course for success, but to help them achieve it. •

MAKING AN IMPACT WITH IN-KIND GIFTS

By Rebecca Mischke
Assistant to the Director of Development

What is considered an In-Kind gift? In-Kind gifts are charitable giving in which—instead of giving money to buy needed goods and services—the goods and services themselves are given.

In-kind gifts are tangible goods including things like equipment, building material, books, food, cars, clothing, furniture, and tools. In-kind services are professional services donated by groups such as corporations, small businesses, vendors, individual professionals or tradespeople. For example, a company or individual could provide building or carpentry services, or maybe computer services.

What type of in-kind gifts does Tennessee Children's Home need?

1. New Appliances
Refrigerators • Ovens (Electric) • Washers • Dryers • Freezers
2. Any in-kind building material for the new Spring Hill campus such as; wiring, lumber, drywall, etc. . . .
3. Any professional services, such as; carpentry, plumbing, electrical, etc. . . .
4. Food – perishable and non-perishable (see page 14-15 for more details) •

TENNESSEE CHILDREN'S HOME APPRECIATES ANY IN-KIND GIFT NO MATTER HOW BIG OR SMALL.

We appreciate all of those who donated homemade face masks and hospital face masks. Thank you!
